Good morning,

I was hoping to request a proclamation to celebrate the Commissionaires 100th year in Canada. We work closely with CFB Esquimalt, so I thought I would reach out to you.

The exact date of the centennial is July 25th, but we are celebrating our centennial throughout 2025. We actually just held a Centennial Celebration BBQ at the Base last week.

Attached is our draft proclamation for your review. Thank you for your consideration.

Kind regards,

Debbie Kennedy

COMMISSIONAIRES VICTORIA, THE ISLANDS AND YUKON
[REDACTED]

We acknowledge the many First Nation traditional territories upon which CVIY's Commissionaires live and work and join in the stewardship and care of these lands.

Commissionaires Victoria, the Islands and Yukon (CVIY) is proud to celebrate its 100th anniversary as a provider of security services in Canada.

On July 25, 1925, the Canadian Corps of Commissionaires was founded with a mission to provide meaningful employment for veterans returning from war.

Today, 100 years later, CVIY is driven by its social mandate to provide meaningful employment to veterans of the Canadian Armed Forces, RCMP and other former first responders.

In addition, they are joined by dedicated professionals from all walks of life, who serve a range of clients across industries united by a shared commitment to safety, service, and community.

As a not-for-profit organization, CVIY reinvests in people, purpose, and the communities we serve. We deliver trusted security and advanced technology solutions across Vancouver Island, helping to protect what matters most.
