Community Safety Report Card for Esquimalt Council – Q1 2023

June 12, 2023

Chief Del Manak

Full report available at Open VicPD
Highlights for Q1

☐ Trends in calls for service

☐ Crime prevention

☐ Operational update

☐ Community engagement

☐ Current focus

Calls for Service

Esquimalt Calls for Service

Crime Prevention & Public Safety

☐ Traffic Safety & Enforcement – speed reader board deployed

Operational Update

- Esquimalt Division officers responded to calls ranging from significant intimate partner violence to damage to the irrigation system at the Esquimalt Park pavilion.

- Files of note:

  - $11,000 in stolen property recovered

  - Esquimalt Division officers reunite family & stroller

Community Engagement

- Pink Shirt Day

- Rainbow Kitchen engagement

- Project "Business Connect"

- Greater Victoria Police Camp

Community Engagement

Meet Your VicPD

VIC PD

Park — Township of ESQUIMALT

Cst. Ian Diack

Community Resource Officer

Ian has been a police officer with VicPD for the past 14 years and was with Edmonton Police Service for 4 years before that. He's currently a key member of our VicPD Esquimalt Division.

You'll see Ian everywhere in Esquimalt as he enjoys walking the beat with fellow officers, meeting people from all walks of life and assisting them in meaningful ways.

Ian has an education in fitness and nutrition and previously worked as a personal trainer and gym manager.

VicPD.ca

VIC PD

Outside of Work

Ian enjoys hiking and skiing with his two sons and volunteering as their Cub Scouts leader. He also volunteers with the Esquimalt Lions Club.

He also enjoys reading and listening to live music. The last book he read was The Sun Also Rises by Ernest Hemingway and he would love to see a Bruce Springsteen concert.

Fun Fact: Ian likes to sing Elvis and Johnny Cash songs at karaoke!

VicPD.ca

Current Focus

☐ Speed Reader Boards

☐ School Safety

Questions?

Cst. Greg Shaw, Esquimalt Community Resource Officer, Retires